

Hi

Thank you for your enquiry for entertainment at your party.

Our Kimbo the Clown's comedy "Magic" Show is our most popular kids show: a 40-45min interactive, high energy, comedy magic show that the kids never forget. About eight children that come up to help get small prizes. The birthday child gets a modelled balloon of an animal. After the show all the children have their faces brightly painted. Although pitched at the Birthday child's age group, parents and other kids present will also be entertained by the show. I also conduct the singing of happy birthday and the cake cutting, adding fun and humour. I start well into the party after all the late comers have arrived, settled and usually after the kids have had a snack. In total, it's at least an hour of intensive entertainment. This show can include various party themes if need be.

The cost of this package is dependent on what day your party is (week day or week end) and will include travel, please advise. A deposit of R1000 is required to secure your booking and the balance can be paid in cash on the day (or by EFT well before the date). Our prices are not the cheapest, but we are confident in providing the best entertainment for parties in KZN to make any event an unforgettable hit.

This package is more than enough entertainment for a party, but there are also additional options for additional party games, piñata, prizes for all instead of party packs, etc. We also have other themed activity shows like Survivor, pirates, cowboys, army, princess, etc.

i.e.: Survivor Activity party:

Loosely based on the TV Survivor series. I group the children into two tribes. They compete for points doing a wide variety of fun activities to test their abilities of speed, skill, endurance, courage, appetite, etc. No voting out, highly bias scoring and loads of fun. After the two hour session (with a refreshment break in the middle), both tribes unbelievably come tie at the end and receive whatever may be provided in the way of party packs(not essential). This is an outdoor activity that requires a bit of lawn. If weather is bad on the day there is an option to change to a down scaled show indoors requiring about the space of a double garage, or swing it to a magic show. Ideal ages 5 and up and need at least about ten kids. This is a 2 hour activity show.

Kind regards.

Kimbo the Clown :

A high energy character with a strong foreign accent who performs mainly magic, combined with mime, juggling, balloon modelling and illusions to add a festive atmosphere to a venue or an occasion. Kimbo is also available to do table to table magic, Master of Ceremonies, busking, face painting, unicycling or other specific requests.

Children’s shows :

SHOPPING MALL PROMOTIONAL ENTERTAINMENT :

For the past fifteen years my wife and I have been providing a wide range of commercial entertainment as performers. Through our experience we have developed some unique presentational styles that have proved effective in various types of marketing and promotions. We focus on providing a high impact magical experience for the individual shopper in order to create a memorable, pleasurable and festive shopping atmosphere.

We have found that the conventional approach of drawing an audience to a set event (shows, competitions, etc.) is effective in specific instances, but can be restrictive in reaching the masses at shopping centres.

For general promotions, we have found it most effective to entertain on a “roving-busking” basis as an interesting character. The advantages are :

- The entire complex is covered to the advantage of all the tenants.
- Individuals can be personally entertained within their appropriate age or culture group.
- A larger number of shoppers are entertained. (Every few seconds a different group of individuals are engaged)
- People who are in a rush are not excluded as personal interaction is short.
- There is a greater opportunity for spontaneity.
- The security risk of gathering a large crowd is avoided.

We apply various theatrical performance skills to the characters that we present to add entertainment impact. The greatest response usually comes from close-up magic and illusions, stilt walking, mime and mimics. The following can also be appropriate: juggling, humour, balloon art, fire swinging, puppets, snake handling, unicycling, Master of Ceremonies (usually in a character), and short dramas.

We work on an individual quotation basis based on the package required. . Where budgets are restricted our teenage sons also present colourful characters with basic magic, juggling, unicycling, poi, face painting, balloon modelling, etc. We are based in Pmb and perform all the characters ourselves which saves agents fees

Pictures and details of our most popular characters can be found in Facebook under “Xtreme Entertainment” (the icon with Kimbo the Clown playing a guitar).

Trust that you will consider our services for future events.

Kind Regards.

My wife Nicky and I have had a passion for the performing arts over the past sixteen years. We have acted in various dramas and mimes, we have presented shows at arts festivals, done street dramas and trained others in acting skills.

Besides conventional acting on a part time basis we also continually present a variety of characters for various functions using skills like magic, juggling, uni-cycling, fire swinging, stilt walking, clowning, mime, comedy, puppets and story telling.

Greetings

This is a flexible proposal for Christmas Entertainment, open to discussion to suit your needs (photos available) :

Set activities and shows:

- 1) Kimbo's Comedy Magic Show : Ever popular 45 minute sit down show with give-aways.
- 2) Mr Pepperochelli's Comedy Magic Show : More of a conventional stage show.
- 3) Holiday Fun Activity Show : A wide variety of games, competitions, tricks, dancing, etc.with prizes and give-aways. 2 hours or longer. Hosted by two of our popular characters of choice.
- 4) Pete the Pirate :conducts a treasure hunt and pirate related games, activities, etc. Possible workshop for children to create their own pirate hats, swords, etc. 1hour (plus 1 hr workshop)
- 5) Teddy Bear Picnic : Smaller children are painted as teddies and given cute teddy ears for a teddy hunt and picnic with related games, etc.
- 6) The Great Adventure Puppet Show : Our 50 minute long Gospel puppet show based on the classic "Pilgrims Progress". May offend other religious groups.
- 7) Christmas Card & Decoration Making : Conducted by our magical characters.
- 8) Face Painting : Usually done by Nixie the Ragdoll or Kimbo and can be done in combination with other activities.
- 9) Fashion shows : Presenting outfits from the stores within the mall. This is best MC'd by a comical character with loads of humour and fill in entertainment.
- 10) Other : Various other ideas like unusual pet displays and competitions can be orchestrated by our performing characters.

The above options can be influenced by the weather, the attendance on the day, will have to be at a set venue (which may cause tenants in other areas to feel left out) and is specifically aimed at the children. On the other hand, our characters like Kimbo, stilt walker, mime artists, Nixie the Ragdoll, Nerdock the Nerd, Nikkitabell the Fairy, etc. are ideally suited to busk around the entire complex and to include all ages with close up magic hand-outs and entertainment unhindered by the weather. This busking is extremely flexible and can continue for the entire day and interacts with hundreds of shoppers an hour without causing crowded congestion. I would recommend more busking than activities.

Pricing depends largely on the amount of work intended and also the quantities of material for activities, the scale on which you want to do the workshops, etc. If we can discuss roughly what you intend and ideas ASAP then I can give you prices.

Many thanks.

Regards.

We would love you to join us for Dillon's 9th SURVIVOR PARTY !!!

The RED TRIBE compete against the GREEN TRIBE in fast pace activities, testing the tribe's abilities of speed, skill, endurance, wit, fears, strength, courage and appetite. No voting out, highly bias scoring and loads of fun. Be there !!!

11h00 (sharp)
on the remote Island of 10 Erskine Road.
This Saturday 27 January 2007.
Dress ready for action !
RSVP : Nicky Mather : 0848276922/ 033-3865440

Survivor Corporate Team Build: We usually create two tribes that compete intensely against each other in a multitude of very short fun activities (about 2 minutes an activity, so if you don't like it, the next totally different activity soon presents itself). The activities require team work and accommodate the fit, arrogant, sick, elderly and lazy. The activities are designed to challenge your strength, speed, luck, wit, skills, problem solving, courage, endurance (for about 2 minutes), appetite, fears, humour, etc. There is no voting out, very strict, but highly bias scoring and loads of fun. They shouldn't be told, but everyone ends up a winner. (i.e. Build a wooden tower, do a giant puzzle, target shoot, mini fun quiz, put-put, etc) .

We provide all the equipment. Ideal group sizes are between 12 to 30 people, although we have done for 280 people at once. We will require some outdoor space like a small field. There are many outdoor venues available including free venues that can be discussed. Preferably during the dry season. The duration can be any length of time from 2hrs to an entire week end. We find that a full hour session then a break for refreshments, then another full hour is often adequate for the intended purpose. Due to the short activities, and depending on the group, we can get through a multitude of activities during the two full hours. We also spontaneously decide on many of the activities during the sessions depending on the type of abilities in the groups.

The cost is dependent on many variables like how long , where, how many, what is required (prizes, refreshments, etc.). A rough idea is our fee for a local 2hr session of just the team build is R5000 which will be donated directly to an orphanage as we are doing for your school promotion next week. We are very involved in a few orphanages and would prefer one where we know the money would be put to good use. (Tabitha House, Khaylethu Street Shelter, Joseph Baynes Home, Benjamin Generation, or Community Care Project).

Xtreme Entertainment

Ever struggled for ideas to make an occasion special and memorable, be it a child 's or an adult's birthday party, or even a commercial promotion? Xtreme Entertainment caters for nearly every event.

It all started many years ago when KJ and his wife Nicky Mather applied their keen interest in the theatre to meet an opportunity in their church to present various Gospel mime and clowning dramas. With a natural flare for acting, their love for children and an ability to connect with their audience they soon attracted requests to entertain at parties. That's when KJ created the much loved Kimbo the Clown character to present comedy "magic" shows for all age groups. Likewise Nicky created the cute Nixie the Ragdoll Clown to present a mixture of tricks, dance, balloon modelling, puppetry, games and face painting to enthrall younger audiences. The zany Mr Pepperochelli the Bulgician (magician) also emerged for corporate and formal functions.

“It’s been a lot of fun” says KJ, “We’ve continued to develop new characters mainly on demand. We prefer wacky characters, especially those that can connect and interact with the audience.” Some of their popular characters with relating presentations are Action Man, Survivor, Pete the Pirate, Nikkitabell the Fairy, Barbie, Prince and Princess.

“Performing skills like stilt walking, juggling, mime, comedy stage as well as close up illusions, poi, snake handling, etc. as well as having a comical outlook on life has enhanced what we do. We are now working on a series of “Fun Physics” shows to inspire scholars in the world of science. ”

Besides their Sunday School presentations and entertainment hobby, their hearts are very much towards family and home. Their three sons aged 10, 9 & 5 have grown up with much fun and laughter. As Kimbo says “You never have to be naughty to have fun”.

Thank you for enquiring about entertainment at your son's birthday party.

We offer the following in order of popularity:

1) Kimbo the Clown comedy magic show:

40-45min interactive, high energy, comedy magic show that the kids never forget. About eight children that come up to help get small prizes. The birthday child gets a modelled balloon of an animal. After the show all the children have their faces painted as colourful clowns. Although pitched at the Birthday child's age group, parents and other kids present will also be entertained by the show. I also conduct the singing of happy birthday and the cake cutting, adding humour. I start well into the party after all the late comers have arrived and usually after the kids have had a snack. In total, it's about an hour of intensive entertainment. The cost of this 1hr package is R11850 including travel. (We also provide cheaper clowns with basic performance skills like juggling, etc, but this is mainly suited for shopping centres and does not meet the standard required for an unforgettable birthday party.)

2) Survivor Activity party:

Loosely based on the TV Survivor series. I group the children into two tribes. They compete for points doing a wide variety of fun activities to test their abilities of speed, skill, endurance, courage, appetite, etc. No voting out, highly bias scoring and loads of fun. After the two hour session (with a refreshment break in the middle), both tribes unbelievably come tie at the end and receive whatever may be provided in the way of party packs(not essential). This is an outdoor activity that requires a bit of lawn. If weather is bad on the day there is an option to change to a down scaled show indoors requiring about the space of a double garage. Ideal ages 5 and up and need at least about ten kids. The cost of this 2hr Survivor party is R1600. An additional option is that we can provide cammo caps for the kids to take home at R20 each which is a better option than a party pack and you only pay for the ones used on the day.

3) Action Man:

For army enthusiastic children, Action Man trains the children in how to survive in jungle warfare through fun activities. Also a 2hr outdoor activity based party with a short break in the middle for cake and refreshments. Ideal ages 5 and up. Cost is R1600. An additional option is that we can provide cammo caps for the kids to take home at R20 each which is a better option than a party pack and you only pay for the ones used on the day.

4) Pirate Pete:

Pete the Pirate conducts pirate related activities for 2hrs with a break in the middle. The children soon see through Pete's tough and fearless attitude. Small prizes included. Cost is R1600.

5) Nikkitabell the Fairy:

A fairy show is presented that includes, fairy tricks, games, face painting/make up, dancing and a personalized poem to the Birthday girl and crowning ceremony. Details of the Birthday girl are required beforehand for the poem.

6) Princess, Mermaid or Nixie the Ragdoll Clown:

These characters also present a variety of entertainment for girls (although the odd boy present at the party will also enjoy the show).

The cost of the characters in 3 & 4 above for about an hour and a half depend on what you want provided in the way of prizes for the games and options like dancing ribbons for the girls to take home.

7) Party Packs:

A basic party pack consisting of a packet juice, chips, fizzer, sweet, bubble gum, sucker, small chocolate and a balloon is R12.

A novelty pen that writes different colours is an additional R10.

You only pay for the party packs that are used on the day.

8) Video:

A video edited to an presentational DVD format capturing the moments of your party is also available for all parties.

Please book well in advance to avoid disappointment. Payment is cash on the day. If the price is out of your budget range, then it could be reduced if you book within a week before depending on availability.

For future reference, my wife Nicky provides a variety of entertainment at girls parties as a fairy, princess, clown, mermaid, etc. I also perform comedy magic shows and team building exercises for adult and corporate functions. Also stilts, juggling, mime, unicycling, poi, giant cartoon characters, games/competitions, etc for large events.

Please confirm booking as soon as possible as Saturdays are booked up fairly quickly.

Thank you for your enquiry.

My Action Man (army) theme is very popular for 7 year old boys and believe it or not for girls too. Your fears are confirmed ... I transform these innocent kids into ferocious killers in 2 hrs, but then you can live and sleep feeling safe as ever! Seriously though, with many short fun activities I teach them to survive in jungle warfare along with huge stories of how I am constantly saving the world. It's a 2 hour activity based party with a break in the middle for refreshments. We start with basic training and progress to unarmed combat, shooting and throwing a grenades. All very safe and tongue in cheek.

Another very popular theme is our Survivor Party where I group the kids into two tribes and they compete for two hours doing a huge variety of challenges each for about 2 or 3 minutes long testing their, skill, speed, humour, teamwork, etc, etc. Loosely based on the TV series, but no voting out, highly bias scoring and loads of fun. Also with a short break in the middle.

Both the above themes require a little bit of lawn about a minimum of 20-30 meters long. If it starts raining lightly during the show it usually adds to the fun, but it's not fun to start in the rain. As a last minute backup on a bad weather day, I usually present a comedy clown magic show indoors. I can also do a compromised Survivor show inside the space of a double garage to save the day. Some of the larger activities are then down scaled, but still a lot of fun.

As Kimbo the Clown I also do a sit down comedy clown magic show ideal for kids up to about 12yr olds. This is a 45 minute show followed by conducting the cake singing and cutting with humour and then painting bright colourful clown faces on everyone. During the show I include about 8 prizes to kids that come up to help. For this show I arrive well into the party for an intensive hour of entertainment. Ideal for indoors.

I also do a variety of other themes like pirates, etc, but the above three shows are the most popular and the kids never forget them.

The 2hr shows including travel will be R2750.00 with an additional option to give out camouflaged caps to all at R20 each. The Kimbo package is R2450.00. If this is beyond your budget, then there is a possibility of it being reduced if you book within a week of the party, taking a risk that I may be fully booked.

Many thanks.

Kind regards.

Xtreme Entertainment offers a wide variety of entertainment for the young and old at private parties, commercial marketing events, shopping malls, hotels and schools. In over three thousand shows over the past twenty two years we have used a variety of theatrical skills presented by delightful, themed characters to enthral audiences at every type of occasion.

We are passionate about our entertainment. Our aim is to present an unforgettable and festive encounter with the audience that will make any event unique, adding lift to make it a hit.

We are a five member family team, but sometimes incorporate other selected performers when the need arises. Based in Pietermaritzburg, we travel throughout KZN and also further afield throughout South Africa for large scale events.

Our theatrical skills include: Magic (comedy, close up, table hopping and stage magic), mime (classical, comedy, mimics, frozen statues, magical), juggling, uni-cycling, mini cycling, stilt walking, poi (fire/ribbon swinging), balloon modelling, snake handling, puppets, illusions, face painting, story telling, dramas, Gospel illusions, conducting grown up and children's games and competitions with a comic difference.

We also have educational fun physics shows for schools, as well as team building for companies.

Based on your requirements and the details of your party or event, we would love to present you with an entertainment proposal and a quotation. See details and photos of our most popular characters on attachment.

Here are a few of our more popular characters and shows:

I originally and still am a Maritzburger. I left school in Pmb and went to Jhb for a short period to study Civil Engineering in the early 80's which is still my current career path(Civil Engineering Technician). There my life radically changed as I became a born again Christian and also discovered an interesting way to express my new found spiritual lifestyle to others through short dramas, mimes, etc. This was also all new to me not having any background in drama. Performing street theatre in Jhb was a very rich training ground. I also developed an appreciation for theatre where I learned as much as I could by watching a wide variety of good and bad performing arts.

When I met my wife Nicky also a Maritzburg girl from Carter High, we both continued to perform these sort of dramas together. Our main audiences were church groups, old age homes, children's homes, institutions and charity organisations..With our love for kids we also started presenting the Gospel to younger audiences through illustrative tricks, mime, etc(which we still do). When Nicky fell pregnant with our first son she stopped her full time employment at a local computer company to become a full time parent which most parents know can be a drama in itself. It was at that same time that I was asked to entertain at a private children's party.

That's when I created my Kimbo the Clown character and begun presenting comedy magic shows for kids parties. Over the next few years we both developed many character themes for children's parties as well as for adult, commercial and corporate events. Nicky focussed more on the girls characters like the fairy, princess, mermaid, Nixie the Ragdoll Clown, etc. I developed the army, survivor, pirate, etc. For formal adult functions I began presenting a comedy magic show and comedy close up magic as a wacky foreign magician, Survivor for corporate team building, etc.

Over the years we have presented close to 50 different characters for a wide range of private functions(Obviously our Gospel dramas included many, many more characters). New characters are usually borne through request and demand. Each character is a challenge as it has to go beyond dressing up and needs to be able to deliver sustainable entertainment for the required time. There are however some characters (especially the full costumes where your face is masked) that compromise effective interactive entertainment but are visually effective and suite large walk past crowds at shows.

We also developed many theatrical skills along with our characters, like, magic tricks, illusions, stilt walking, mime, puppets, unicycling, juggling, poi, story telling, face painting, balloon sculptures, etc. All these skills help, but they can also be quite dead depending on how they are presented. We find that the most important thing in entertaining is to connect with the audience and every audience can be totally different. We never want to remain static and this is one area that we aim to constantly improve in.

I think that in the line of our entertainment hobby, our strongest motivational drives are our love for people(young and old), theatrics, comedy, fun, performing skills, the wide range of interactive exposure to all walks of life coupled to the interesting and wonderful friends it has brought us. It is also very rewarding when you arrive at an event that may be flat and boring and you leave feeling that you have significantly changed the atmosphere with humour and made it a success. Personally we both love the wacky side of life and our hobby brings a refreshing change to my left brain working environment. There are also things like our fascination with physics has lead us to present fun physics shows for schools, or my childhood hobby of studying snakes which lead us to do informative snake shows, etc.

We now have three sons, Simon (15), Dillon (14) and Jason (10) who have naturally joined in on the fun and have done clowning, tricks, unicycling, juggling, poi, etc at various functions. At this stage of their lives it's hard to foresee to what extent this will continue in their future.

We have done many memorable events that include flashy and large scale parties like New Year's party at the Lost City, but the most special occasions are often at the opposite end of the scale. Bringing joy and hope to deprived and impoverished audiences that just absorb every once of what you give is most rewarding. Our special memories are also small magic moments like making a sick kid in hospital laugh and forget their situation for a while, or leaving a bored car guard laughing and shaking his head in absolute amazement at how a single coin became a handful of change.

I also find it absolutely fascinating how from time to time I have had young adults in their mid 20's approach me and describe in detail a show that I did at their childhood party. Many of the details I have long forgotten.

Making any event successful is hard work and goes beyond just dressing up and presenting skills. There is a lot of preparation that goes into doing a show and entertaining itself is very exhausting. We are passionate about what we do and the extent that we do it, but wouldn't like to do it full time. We are not always busy and we really need the quiet seasons to recharge. Maybe I also fear losing the edge of my enthusiastic energy and falling into the ho-hum syndrome that seems to plague many performers. We always want to make a positive difference in whatever we do and never lose the fun aspect of doing it.

Hope that that helps. If you want more, please let me know.

Kind regards.

Thank you for your enquiry for us to provide entertainment for Tourism during December.

Over the past 14 years we have provided a wide variety of entertainment for Maritzburg Tourism events, banquets, etc. Meloni Vanness was the director until she recently moved to Chamber of Commerce where she still calls on our skills for events. We have also had years of extensive experience with your specific strategized marketing event this December.

We are therefore very interested in providing entertainment specifically at the Cato Ridge Engin One Stop.

Generally visitors to the stop will not be staying for very long in order to reach their destination. The highest visitor volumes will be stopping for refuelling, toilets and possibly a quick purchase at the shop. A lesser amount will be staying for a quick meal at the restaurants. Short, unique and highly interactive entertainment is most welcomed during these stops especially for children and adults alike who have been cooped up during a long journey. This affords an excellent opportunity to attain Tourism's important marketing strategy in providing all visitors with a personal, interactive and memorable experience in a festive atmosphere that will leave them wanting more.

To achieve this we would use a bright, high energy character clown capable of a variety of theatrical skills. This performer would rove around the entire venue (forecourt, shops, table to table in the restaurants, etc), focussing on entertaining where maximum exposure to the highest volumes of visitors is achieved. Doing short, high impact performances on the move also has the added advantage of i) including all ages and cultures, ii) focussing on continually changing target areas and ii) crowd/audience congestion can be avoided.

The performer will mainly present interactive, comedy close up magic (tricks) that are always a huge success, but will also intermittently include a variety of other quick skills like comedy mime, juggling, poi, etc. Depending on the volumes of people, quick colourful faces can also be painted on children and balloon models given out. During the conjuring tricks wrapped candy will be given out on an individual basis to roughly 150 people per hour.

Thank you for your enquiry to do a presentation at the Quarry's Birthday celebration.

As mentioned over the phone, we have done a huge variety of entertainment at the Quarry over the past 14 years.

There are many possibilities depending on your requirements, budget, etc, but this is what I would propose:

A theatrically skilled performer presented as a colourful clown performs comedy close up magic to all age groups while covering the entire shopping mall area. This will be : i) highly interactive, ii) creates a festive carnival atmosphere, iii)incorporates all shops and areas, although can focus on changing target areas as demand shifts iv) does not create a congestion/security problem in one specific area, vi) includes all age and cultural groups, vii) leaves the public with a pleasant, personal, memorable experience. The performer may also include short interactions of mime, juggling, poi, etc. If there are hand outs like sweets to be given out(which we can provide), this can be incorporated into the conjuring tricks to make it personal and unique.

A second clown can be set up to do face painting. If there are any lulls, this clown can also do short sessions of juggling, unicycling, poi, tricks, etc. There is also a possibility of a multi skilled stilt walker.

Here is a list of our most popular characters (Photos are available on facebook under Xtreme Entertainment (see icon of Kimbo the Clown playing guitar):

“ KJ and Nicky Mather have been presenting a wide variety of entertainment over the past 15 years.
